

Created by the North Highland Initiative, the North Coast 500 (NC500) is the brand new touring route that aims to bring together the best of the Highlands of Scotland.

Beginning the route in Inverness, the capital of the Highlands, the NC500 steers along the stunning coastal edges of the North Highlands in a route covering just over 500 miles.

Ideal for all travellers, the NC500 highlights the unique and exciting experiences available in the Highlands, from the awe-inspiring mountain ranges, to the Mediterranean-style beaches; from the haunting castle ruins to the charming lochs and rivers, the North Coast 500 has it all.

For more information on the route and the experiences available, head to www.northcoast500.com for more information.
